

Ask God to forgive you of your sins.

Trust in Jesus Christ — not in your religious track record, your own “good deeds”, or in a prayer you repeated as a kid.

Trust in Christ alone. Follow him as Lord of your life.

“If you declare with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.” (Romans 10:9)

Today is the day.

There’s no guaranteed extra time.

P.O. Box 8700
Cary, NC 27512
USA

1.800.880.5339
rtm@transmundial.org
transmundial.org/salvacion

“Cómo conocer a Dios”

THE REFEREE MAKES NO EXCEPTIONS

In soccer, the rules don’t change based on who you are. The referee won’t overlook your foul because you’re a good neighbor, because you meant well, or because everyone else plays worse.

God is the same way.

Ask God to forgive you of your sins.

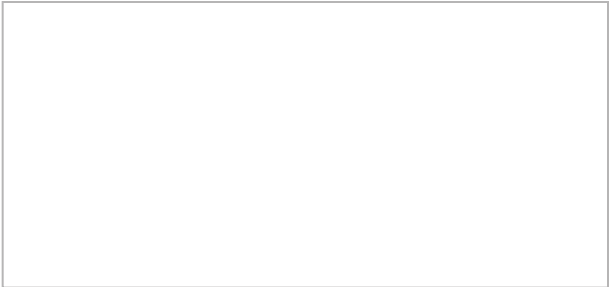

Trust in Jesus Christ — not in your religious track record, your own “good deeds”, or in a prayer you repeated as a kid.

Trust in Christ alone. Follow him as Lord of your life.

“If you declare with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.” (Romans 10:9)

Today is the day.

There’s no guaranteed extra time.

P.O. Box 8700
Cary, NC 27512
USA

1.800.880.5339
rtm@transmundial.org
transmundial.org/salvacion

“Cómo conocer a Dios”

THE REFEREE MAKES NO EXCEPTIONS

In soccer, the rules don’t change based on who you are. The referee won’t overlook your foul because you’re a good neighbor, because you meant well, or because everyone else plays worse.

God is the same way.

It doesn't matter how you compare yourself to others. God's standard isn't "better than other people." His standard is perfection.

And none of us are perfect. We've all failed.

"For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23)

Fouls have consequences. In soccer, someone has to pay for every foul. Debts don't just disappear.

Our sins have a cost too.

"For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 6:23)

Here's the news that changes everything:

Jesus Christ stepped onto the field in your place.

It doesn't matter how you compare yourself to others. God's standard isn't "better than other people.

And none of us are perfect. We've all failed.

"For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23)

Fouls have consequences. In soccer, someone has to pay for every foul. Debts don't just disappear.

Our sins have a cost too.

"For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 6:23)

Here's the news that changes everything:

Jesus Christ stepped onto the field in your place.

He took the punishment you deserved. He died on the cross and rose on the third day, proving that he conquered sin and death.

"But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8)

You can't win this game on your own effort. Nobody can.

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith — and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God — not by works, so that no one can boast." (Ephesians 2:8-9)

WHICH TEAM ARE YOU ON?

There's no neutral position. You're either reconciled to God through Christ, or you're separated from him.

Nobody expects the soccer referee to ignore

He took the punishment you deserved. He died on the cross and rose on the third day, proving that he conquered sin and death.

"But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8)

You can't win this game on your own effort. Nobody can.

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith — and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God — not by works, so that no one can boast." (Ephesians 2:8-9)

WHICH TEAM ARE YOU ON?

There's no neutral position. You're either reconciled to God through Christ, or you're separated from him.

Nobody expects the soccer referee to ignore the rules of the game because a player is "basically a pretty good person."

The question isn't whether you're a good person. The question is: what do you believe about Jesus Christ?

Don't settle for having repeated a prayer once. Examine your heart.

You can wear your favorite team's jersey, know every chant, and fill a stadium — but if you've never actually played the game, you're not a player. You're just a spectator in good gear.

Ask yourself: Does it grieve you to offend God? Do you recognize that you are a sinner who has rebelled against God?

True salvation produces real repentance. Not perfection, but a different direction.

the rules of the game because a player is "basically a pretty good person."

The question isn't whether you're a good person. The question is: what do you believe about Jesus Christ?

Don't settle for having repeated a prayer once. Examine your heart.

You can wear your favorite team's jersey, know every chant, and fill a stadium — but if you've never actually played the game, you're not a player. You're just a spectator in good gear.

Ask yourself: Does it grieve you to offend God? Do you recognize that you are a sinner who has rebelled against a holy God?

True salvation produces real repentance. Not perfection, but a different direction.