

"God, I am a sinner. I have lived for myself and ignored You. I deserve Your judgment. But I believe Jesus died in my place and rose again. I turn from my sin. I trust in Christ alone. Have mercy on me, and give me a new life that belongs entirely to You. Amen."

If you prayed that and meant it, don't stop there. Open a Bible. Find a church that preaches God's Word. Live for Christ.

Jesus is the light that overcomes all darkness.

Will you turn to Him today?

"Cómo conocer a Dios"

Darkness and Light

Halloween and Día de los Muertos are times when people talk about death and remember loved ones they've lost.

Many enjoy the costumes, candy, and spooky decorations. It may seem like harmless fun. But what lies beyond the fear, death, and darkness on display? I urge you to consider it seriously.

Darkness and Light

Halloween and Día de los Muertos are times when people talk about death and remember loved ones they've lost.

Many enjoy the costumes, candy, and spooky decorations. It may seem like harmless fun. But what lies beyond the fear, death, and darkness on display? I urge you to consider it seriously.

Death is not entertainment. It is not a costume you take off at the end of the night.

The Bible is clear: death is real, it is final, and what comes after it is forever.

Death and sin are realities every one of us faces. Romans 6:23 says, “For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

You have sinned, as have we all. And sin has a wage that must be paid. But understand this: sin is not merely breaking a rule. Sin is rebellion against an infinitely holy God who made you, sustains you, and to whom you will one day give an account.

But God, in His mercy, offers something we could never earn. Jesus said in John 11:25, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live.”

This is not a comfort for the comfortable. It is a lifeline for those who are perishing.

To receive that life, you must repent. Not repeat a prayer. Not make a decision and move on. Repentance means coming before a holy God, acknowledging the full weight of your sin, and turning from it completely.

1 John 1:9 promises, “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.”

Jesus Christ lived the perfect life you could not live. He died the death you deserve because of your rebellion against God.

He rose from the dead, conquering sin and the grave, to make it possible that you could be forgiven and made new.

“If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come.” 2 Corinthians 5:17

Know this... Jesus leaves no room for alternatives: “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.” John 14:6

I hope you will consider this not as a Halloween curiosity, but as the most urgent matter of your life.

If God is drawing you to Himself right now, don't treat it lightly. You are not filling out a form. You are approaching a holy God who sees everything you are.
